Fresh A.I.R. (Artists In Recovery) Gallery exhibits the works of individuals affected by mental illness and/or substance abuse disorders. Through art, we educate the community and work to break down the stigma of mental illness and substance abuse by bringing focus to the artistic vision. The Fresh A.I.R. Gallery is a project of Southeast, Inc., Recovery & Mental Healthcare Services.

Sherry Simone

February 6 – March 29

Columbus Ohio oil painter shares her therapy work taught to her by David Groves' metaphor process.

PhotoVoice II

April 17 – May 31

C.O.V.A. empowered eight participants each with a camera to document their personal struggles with mental health issues and stigma. The 24 photo essays exhibit their persistence and hope on their roads to recovery.

Douglas Gantt and Joel Witt

June 19 – August 2

Gantt's body of work represents recollections from his own lived experience melded with resurrections of classic works of arts. His work is contrasted with Witt's who exhibits his newly created genre: Imex Pressionism.

Shannon Cameron

August 21 – October 4

Maryland based painter creates art that visually helps her understand past trauma, every day existence, and hope for her future.
BFA MICA, MFA Boston University.

Ronald Jason Van Hoose

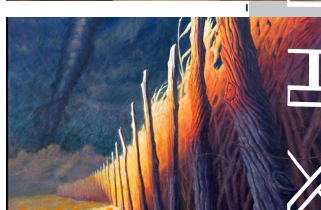

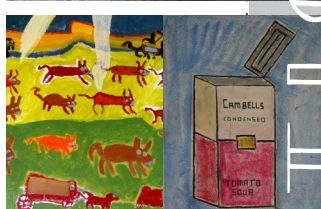

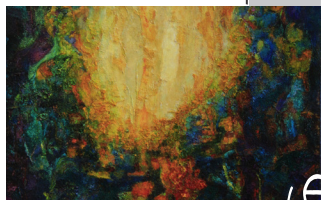

October 16 – November 29

Ronald paints landscapes of Ohio and Western Pennsylvania, as well as socio-political commentary of the region. BFA Youngstown State University.

Lauren Carter and Kati Semones

December 18 – January 31, 2014

Lauren Carter's collage series bridges the gap between her mind and the outside world. Kati Semones communicates her messages through drawing and painting on found objects.
